

WED - 129 RTU

(Ready-To-Use)

♦ RTU MULTI-PURPOSE WATER SOLUBLE SOLVENT

WED-129 RTU is a safe, water soluble, multi-purpose solvent cleaner that removes all types of oils and/or petroleum-based soils. It contains a fast-acting cleaning compound that cuts soils along with a high foaming action to lift soils away. WED-129 RTU is packaged in a 1:15 ratio but can be further diluted for different applications. With the convenient RTU packaging, time and labor is saved as there is no need to pre-mix or need for separate containers.

With its superior wetting agents, water softeners, and alkaline builders, WED-129 RTU is a premium cleaner that cleans a wide variety of applications. Even in its Ready-To-Use formulation, it still has bite with a pH of 11.65 and contains no free caustic.

♦ VERSATILITY

WED-129 RTU is suitable for a wide variety of cleaning jobs. Pressure washers can be greatly aided using their direct chemical injection and WED-129. You can use it in this 1:15 formula or further dilute for lighter tasks. Foam cannons are another device in which you can use WED-129 RTU. Other methods of use are with a mop, hand wash, or soak methods. With its fast-lifting action, less elbow grease is required, thus saving valuable time and resources.

WED-129 RTU is a multi-purpose cleaner that is effective in industrial, institutional, agricultural, and household settings. You can clean wood, steel, aluminum, stainless steel, porcelain, and plastic surfaces removing some of the heaviest deposits. This is a great versatile solution to tackle organic and inorganic soils.

◆ ECONOMICAL

WED-129 in RTU form is versatile enough to replace a variety of cleaning products enabling you to minimize the number of cleaners on hand. Even with its low cost, WED-129 RTU can be further diluted, minimizing its cost even further. Texas Refinery's RTU packaging requires no premixing or special containers, making it very easy to use. Costing only a few cents per ounce, not only is it convenient, but a very inexpensive cleaning solution compared to the costlier final products you find on store shelves.

◆ INDUSTRIAL STRENGTH

WED-129 RTU is a very cost-effective industrial strength cleaner and degreaser that will power away grease and soils on contact. With its fast penetration, WED-129 RTU's wetting action is effective on food greases, petroleum soils, organic and inorganic soils. Apply it directly to the area needing cleaned and wipe away the toughest of stains in just seconds.
